

ing;⁷⁸ fragmentary index; entries from 1647 to 1651; contains demands, patents, commissions, court records, proclamations, assembly proceedings.

- Liber 3—photocopy of “Liber No. 3 Transcribed from old Liber A beginning at fol. 340 to the End and Old Liber B from fol. 240 [sic] to the End” 1725; 448 pages; this volume represents the completion of the copying of Proprietary Records Liber A begun in Liber 2 and Proprietary Records Liber B begun in Liber 1.
- Liber 4—photocopy of Liber “A B & H, transcribed from the old record books A, B and H” in 1717; 437 pages; pagination from original books not copied; index; book is divided, by blank spaces or starting of a new page, into 3 parts corresponding to the 3 books copied from: 1) pp. 1-57, containing warrants, demands, certificates, patents and assignments from 1646 to 1650, which constitute an extract of all land business scattered throughout Liber A plus one entry at the very beginning which does not appear in Liber A and probably comes from one of the missing first 56 pages of that book 2) pp. 57-104, containing entries from 1639 to 1644 of land transactions, which in shortened form are the same entries as those of pp. 28-152 of Liber F (not Liber B as the title says) 3) pp. 105-436, containing demands, proofs of rights, warrants, certificates, patents and assignments from the years 1650 to 1655; presumably a copy of original Liber H which according to the 1680 list covered the years 1650 to 1655.⁷⁹ The last page of this volume contains “an Abstract of the Certificates that were in the Land Record Liber L”, “an old thin Parchment Covered Book”, most of them being from the year 1657 or a few years earlier thus corresponding to the Liber D of the 1680 list.
- Liber 5—photocopy of a copy transcribed probably in 1717⁸⁰ from original Liber Q;⁸¹ 480 numbered pages; pagination of original not kept; index; entries for 1658; contains ⁷⁸ In the original 58 pages are missing, but. 57-8 are to be found in the Liber 2 copy.

⁷⁹ Apparently some pages are missing. The first entry is referred to in Rent Rolls O, p. 108 as being on p. 3 of “Record for land for 1650” (Liber H).

⁸¹ The original is extant but almost half missing, beginning with what is p. 215 of the copy.
