

SEC. 207. And be it enacted, That all articles hereinbefore enumerated, seized and condemned under the provisions of this act, shall be sold by the constable or sheriff, or other officer of the county in which such condemnation may be made, at public sale, after giving twenty days' notice of the time and place of such sale by advertisement in one newspaper in the county where such condemnation may be made, and by written or printed notice being posted up at four of the most public places within two miles of the place of said sale, to the highest bidder for cash; and the proceeds of such sale or sales, after deducting all the legal expenses of seizure, condemnation and sale, shall be divided as follows, to wit: one-half to the informer and the other half to the commissioners of said county for the benefit of the school fund of said county; if among the articles so seized and condemned there should be a big or swivel gun, the same shall not be sold, but shall at once be destroyed or rendered useless by the officer in custody thereof.

Sold at public sale.

Proceeds—how divided.

SEC. 208. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to repeal, modify or in any manner interfere with the provisions of the act of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, chapter fifty-four, entitled an act to exempt all that portion of the waters of the Chesapeake bay lying northward of a certain line therein described from the operation and effects of sections one and three of article ninety-eight of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Wild Fowl," and to re-enact other sections to be in force and operation in, on and over said waters; nor the act of eighteen hundred and seventy-four, chapter three hundred and eighty-four, entitled an act to amend the act of January session, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, chapter fifty-four, entitled an act to exempt all that portion of the waters of Chesapeake bay lying northward of a certain line therein described from the operation and effects of sections one and three of article ninety-eight of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Wild Fowl," and to enact other sections to be in force and operation in, on and over said waters, by How construed.

Still in force.