

CHAPTER 594.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Chapter 290 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1890, relating to the incorporation of "The Baltimore Humane Impartial Society and Aged Women's and Aged Men's Homes."

WHEREAS, An Act was passed on April 3, 1890, being Chapter 290 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland reducing into one the various acts of incorporation, including the original Act of December 27, 1811, being Chapter 86 of the Acts of 1811; and whereas, it is desired by the Board of Trustees and by the Board of Managers, acting for the welfare of said Society, that hereafter there shall be only one Board known as the Board of Managers, composed of women alone, having all the powers, rights and duties heretofore belonging to the two Boards, except as hereinafter provided; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That said several Acts be amended and reduced into one, so that all the rights, duties, powers and operations of said corporation, and of all its officers shall be continued under the following provisions after this Act takes effect.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporation is hereby continued under the corporate name of "The Aged Women's and Aged Men's Homes, Franklin Square, Baltimore," and by that name it shall have succession, and be capable in law of purchasing, building, selling, leasing and conveying lands and tenements, goods and chattels and other property, real and personal, and to take any property by gift, devise or otherwise, within and without this State, and to sue and to be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to make, have and use a common seal, and the same to break, alter and renew at pleasure, and in general, to do all acts and things which may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes of its incorporation and the provisions of this Act, including the maintenance of homes for aged women and for aged men.

SEC. 2A. And be it further enacted, That Sections 3 and 4 of Chapter 290 of the Acts of 1890 be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:
