

for the improvement and maintenance of the St. Luke's Winter's Evangelical Lutheran Cemetery."

To the bequests contained in the last Will and Testament of Walter B. Yount, deceased, probated by the Orphans' Court of Carroll County, on January 18th, 1932, and of record in the Office of the Register of Wills for said County, in Wills Liber W. F. B. No. 14, Folio 120, etc., as follows:

(a) After the death of Emma J. Yount, widow of the Testator, "one-third of that portion of my estate which exists in the form of bonds, Matured life insurance, bank-stock or money in bank, to the General Mission Board of the Church of the Brethren, a religious body corporate, whose place of business is at Elgin, Illinois."

(b) After the death of Emma J. Yount, widow of the Testator, "should there be neither son nor widow nor issue to take," as provided by will, the residue to "the General Mission Board of the Church of the Brethren, a religious body corporate, whose place of business is at Elgin, Illinois."

To the bequests contained in the last Will and Testament of E. Scott Koons, deceased, probated by the Orphans' Court of Carroll County, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Wills for said County, in Wills Liber W. F. B. No. 14, Folio 122, etc., as follows:

(a) After the death of Edna L. Koons, widow, to "the Trustees of the Cemetery at the Mt. Union Evangelical Lutheran Church, in Middleburg District, Carroll County, Maryland, the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), the same to be safely invested, and the income arising therefrom to be used for keeping my burial lot in good condition, and for other cemetery purposes."

(b) After the death of Edna L. Koons, widow, the proceeds of the residue of estate to be divided into two equal parts; "one part of which I give and bequeath to the Tressler Orphans' Home of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the General Synod in the United States, located at Loysville, Pennsylvania; and the other part of which I give and bequeath to the National Lutheran Home for the Aged, located at Washington, District of Columbia."

To the bequests contained in the last Will and Testament of Sarah C. Shaffer, deceased, probated by the Orphans' Court of Carroll County on January 8th, 1932, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Wills for Carroll