SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 65, 66, 75, 84 and 85 of Article 7 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Carroll County," sub-title "Hampstead," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments and to be known as Sections 65, 66, 75, 84 and 85, and that an additional section relating to codification and revision of ordinances to follow Section 75 and to be known as Section 76A, be enacted so as to read as follows:

Section 65. All persons who have resided within the corporate limits of said town for six months next preceding the election, and who are qualified to vote for delegates for the General Assembly, shall be qualified voters of the corporation, and entitled to vote at any corporation election held under the provisions of this sub-title or any ordinance made in pursuance thereof; the said voters shall elect by ballot on the first Monday of May in every second year beginning on the first Monday of May, 1934, at such place as shall be designated by the Mayor and Council between two o'clock P. M., and six o'clock P. M., one person, at least twenty-five years of age, who is the owner of real estate or leasehold property within the corporate limits of said town, and who has resided in said town at least two years next preceding said election, Mayor of said town; and six persons, each of whom shall be at least twenty-one years of age, and shall have resided in said town at least one year next preceding said election, and be the owner of real estate or leasehold property within the corporate limits of said town, members of the Council.

Section 66. The Mayor shall give at least two weeks' notice of the election by hand bills posted in not less than five public places in said town, and shall appoint three persons who are qualified at such election, judges of election, and the said judges shall appoint a clerk, who shall record the names of the persons voting as they vote; and each of said judges before holding any elections, shall swear or affirm before a Justice of the Peace of said Carroll County or a Notary Public of the State of Maryland, that he will fairly and impartially discharge the duty of judge of such election; and immediately after the close of the election said judges shall, in the presence of such persons as may desire to witness the same, count the ballots, and the per-
