

CHAPTER 477.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 521 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Talbot County", sub-title "Trappe".

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 521 of Article 21 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), entitled "Talbot County", sub-title "Trappe", be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

Section 521. The bounds and limits of Trappe shall be as follows: Beginning at an iron pipe set in a concrete base at or near the northwesterly corner of a lot belonging to W. C. Slaughter, said lot being on the westerly side of the State Road leading from the Town of Trappe to the Town of Easton, Maryland; thence with the northerly line of the said Slaughter's lot and with the same projected eastwardly, crossing the State Road above mentioned, North sixty-two degrees, thirty-six minutes East, five hundred and thirty-nine and sixty-five one-hundredths feet to a point established as corner number Two, said corner being approximately two hundred and fifty feet eastwardly from the easterly side of the State Road, and on the land belonging to the Dickinson Heirs; thence over the land of the said Dickinson Heirs, South twenty-seven degrees, forty-one minutes East, one thousand, two hundred and fifty-four and three-tenths feet to a point established for corner number Three; thence South eighty-six degrees, fifteen minutes East, one thousand, two hundred and thirty-eight and nine-tenths feet to a point established as corner number Four, said point being near the southeasterly corner of a Barnyard on a farm belonging to the heirs of S. A. Simpson; thence over the said Simpson land, crossing a road or street known as East Street and also crossing the road leading to Kirby's Canning House or Creamery Street, and continuing across the Colored Public School lot, South seven degrees, five minutes West, three thousand, three hundred and twenty-five and three-tenths feet to a point on the northerly side of the Public Road leading to the village of Barber, said point being also on the land belonging to Norman R. Baker; thence with the northerly side of the Public Road, and with the same projected, crossing another Public Road leading to Howell's Point, North seventy-three degrees, forty-one minutes West, five hundred and twelve and