

Article 5 of Flack's Edition of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Calvert County," sub-title "North Beach," as the same were enacted by Chapter 107 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1924 and amendments thereto, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

178. The inhabitants of North Beach, in Calvert County, Maryland, are hereby incorporated and created a corporate body under the name and by the style of North Beach, and by that name may sue and be sued and have and use a common seal, and have perpetual succession.

179. The boundary limits of North Beach shall be as follows: So much of the land embraced in the subdivision heretofore called "North Chesapeake Beach," and shown on a plat thereof, recorded among the Land Records of Calvert County aforesaid, in Liber G. W. D. No. 1, folio 497, which lies east of the west line of Detroit Avenue as shown on said plat (the said Detroit Avenue now being known as Greenwood Avenue), together with the portion of the Chesapeake Bay abutting thereon, eastward for a distance of five thousand feet. The said town shall have and exercise full police powers within and for a distance of five thousand feet beyond the land boundaries thereof.

180. On the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November, 1930, and biennially thereafter, the qualified electors of North Beach shall vote for a Mayor, treasurer and six councilmen, who shall each have the qualifications requisite for an elector of said town, and said Mayor and councilmen shall together constitute the Council of the said town; that an elector of said town shall be any citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years or over who, on the day of election and continuously for a period of ninety days prior to registration shall be the owner of at least one thousand square feet of land in North Beach, whether such real estate be held individually, jointly or as tenant by the entirety, and the husband or wife, as the case may be of such owner, or any citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years or over who is a legal voter in the State of Maryland, and who on the day of election is and for a period of one year prior to registration has been a resident of North Beach, Md.

181. On or before the first day of July, 1934, and each election year, thereafter, the Mayor and Council
