

to them oaths or affirmations, and all summons so issued shall be served by the police force of the City of Baltimore. If any witnesses so summoned shall refuse or neglect to attend, or, attending, refuse to testify, the said Board shall report the facts to the Superior Court of Baltimore City, which is hereby authorized and directed to proceed by attachment against said witnesses in all respects as if said neglect or refusal had been by witnesses summoned to appear in said Court in cases pending before it. The said Board is authorized to adopt and enforce such rules, regulations, restrictions and practices governing the sale of beer and other beverages of alcoholic content not inconsistent with this or any other statute of the State of Maryland, as may be necessary and requisite in their discretion in the discharge of their duties.

689. The term "Wholesale License" as used in this Act shall apply to a license for the sale of beer and other beverages of alcoholic content for consumption elsewhere than on the premises, and in no case to be drunk on the premises. And such licenses shall entitle the holders thereof to sell beer in original packages, and in quantities or packages of not less than one dozen pint bottles or six quarts each; and to sell other beverages of alcoholic content in quantities of not less than one pint each.

The business of bottling beer, lager beer and porter for sale shall not be permitted under any provision of this Act unless conducted at the place where such beer, lager beer or porter is manufactured or produced.

Licenses for the sale of beer or any other beverage of alcoholic content at retail for consumption on the premises shall be issued only to clubs as defined in this Act, restaurants, hotels, and to establishments maintained primarily for the sale of beer and other beverages of alcoholic content, and to holders of special licenses as in this Act provided. Such establishments maintained primarily for the sale of beer and other beverages of alcoholic content shall not sell any other article or thing other than non-alcoholic beverages, tobacco and tobacco products, sea food, and cooked and prepared foodstuffs. Such licenses for the sale of beer or any other beverage of alcoholic content at retail for consumption on the premises, issued to a club, restaurant, hotel, or to an establishment as above defined, shall also authorize the sale of not exceeding eight gallons of beer whether contained in keg or bottles, and the sale of other beverages of alcoholic content in quantities or packages not exceeding five gallons each. Successive or cumulative sales
