

nearly as possible, as before said mains were laid and the cost of same shall be paid out of the proceeds of said bonds as a part of the cost of laying said water mains. Whenever permission to construct, extend or maintain a water supply, water mains, extensions, or appurtenances thereof shall be refused to said County Commissioners by any owner or by the State Roads Commission, said County Commissioners may purchase any land or the right to use said land from the owners thereof, or, failing to agree with the owner or owners thereof for such purchase, may condemn the same by proceedings in the Circuit Court of Howard County in the same manner as is provided for the condemnation of land by public service corporations in the Annotated Code of Maryland, and said County Commissioners may likewise condemn the interest of any tenant, lessee or other person having an interest in said land.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1933.

Approved April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 507.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 474 and 476 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Baltimore County," sub-title "Livery Stables," relating to lien of keepers of horses, mares, geldings, mules, horned cattle or vehicles.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 474 and 476 of Article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Baltimore County," sub-title "Livery Stables," be and they are hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

474. Any person keeping any horse, mare, gelding, mule or horned cattle or vehicle at livery, on pasture or otherwise, in Baltimore County, under his care, may retain the same in his custody until all charges for so keeping shall be paid by the owner, mortgagor or other person entitled to the possession of the same.
