

1 obviously nonrural, if you are going to secure represen-
2 tation on this court in a territorial way, at least to 3 some extent, and I think the limitation ought to be 4 written into the Constitution. It ought not be legis-5 lative will.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Judge Carter, it was suggested
7 at Atlantic City that the Constitution provide that there
8 be districts but not attempt to pinpoint exactly what 9 the geographical districts would be in the Constitution.

10 JUDGE CARTER: Could there be something put 11 in there to the effect that there should be provision 12 made on a territorial geographic basis indicating some 13 distribution on that score?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: I think another suggestion, and 15 I believe Judge Oppenheimer made this at the meeting in 16 Atlantic City, that the districts be as they are now in 17 the present setup until and unless changed by the Legis-
18 lature.

19 JUDGE CARTER: Well, I don't want to belabor
20 the point, but it seems to me if you are going to have a
21 statewide court, then some consideration, I don't say
