

1 MR. BROOKS: Judge Gray made it clear from the 2 outset that this was being sponsored as an educational
3 program by the University of Maryland, with the coopera-
4 tion of the Citizens Committee, and the Commission, but,
5 that none of the views stated at any time during the day
6 reflected at all the thinking of the Commission nor any 7 proposals made, and I thought he made it clear that nothing 8 during that day's activities was to be confused with the 9 work of the Commission. That is why I wondered if it is 10 not extraneous in your discussion here.

11 MR. RAVER: Frankly, you can see the impression
12 I got. Maybe I went with a little suspicion, I don't 13 know, but frankly, that meeting upset me terribly, and I
14 didn't see any point in getting up and discussing it with 15 people who were there. They are not building, I am afraid, 16 support for a successful referendum, saying things such as 17 were said there, and these gentlemen, are they in any 18 way advisory to the Commission?

19 MR. BROOKS: Some are; some are not. Most of 20 the people on these programs have nothing to do with the 21 Commission whatsoever.
