

1 MR. ENEY: Can you go to the Eastern Shore to 2 settle that?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Let's give Mr. Kentner an 4 opportunity to finish before we open up that point.

5 MR. KENTNER: I have one more point. Mention
6 was made that Nebraska is made up largely of a homogeneous
7 population. From a national point of view, this is, I'm 8 sure, entirely correct. However, from the point of view
9 of a practicing, sometime practicing politician in Nebraska,
10 I would say that there are a great number of differences
11 and many of which are very important to Nebraskans in 12 general, as well as to the politicians.

13 I think, at this point, that would conclude
14 my remarks. If you have any questions, I would be happy
15 to try to answer them.

16 MR. SCANLAN: In your judgment, would the 17 unicameral system of Nebraska work just as well, better 18 or worse, if you didn't have the nonpartisan aspect to 19 it?

20 DR. WINSLOW: You ask a practicing politician 21 that?
