

1 supplement any of them in writing, and you say you will,
2 we will be very grateful for your remarks and your voice
3 held up very well.

4 DR. PULLEN: Very well. I'm sorry to impose
5 on you and let me thank you very much for letting me
6 come, Mr. Eney. I'm sure again, I want to say the 7 deliberations of this body will be sound and in the 8 public interest because of your leadership and because 9 of the other people associated with you.

10 MR. ENEY: A pleasure to debate with you, 11 always.

12 THE CHAIRLADY: Is Dr. Martin still here, from 13 the Association of Independent Colleges? He indicated
14 he wouldn't be able to wait very long. I see perhaps 15 he hasn't been able to wait this long. Is there a repre-
16 sentative from the University of Maryland?

17 DR. ALVIN KUHN: Dr. Elkins was not able to 18 attend and I am here in his place.

19 THE CHAIRLADY: Oh, Mr. Burgess, we promised
20 we would hear from you.

21 MR. LIONEL BURGESS: Members of the Committee,
