

1 that you have got to get together effective legislation.
2 You have to dignify the office of representation in the 3 General Assembly, so that it will attractive to well-4 educated and public-spirited people and, unless the 5 position is dignified by importance and power and dis-
6 tinction, you are not going to get that type. That is 7 my feeling.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Let's get some comments from 9 the other members of the Legislature and we may add --

10 MR. ENEY: Senator Harry Hughes just came in.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: And Dr. Mitchener has just 12 arrived, one of the consultants to the Commission. I
13 think we have stimulated you people. I see that Mr.
14 Emanuel, of Prince George's County, might want to com-
15 ment on that.

16 DELEGATE EMANUEL: In view of Senator James'
17 remarks, I can be very brief, because he said precisely 18 what I intended to say in answer to this question. For 19 a while I felt that the unicameral legislature had too
20 many dangers, and one comment of Senator James was this 21 check and balance system, but from the short experience
