

1 have to, you can show a footnote of what it will cost.

2 MR. DONAHO: No, but the Constitution here makes 3 them supplementary appropriation bills.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Wasn't there a bill or was that 5 just introduced that --

6 MR. DONAHO: There was a bill introduced here
7 to say when you put in a bill, you have to say how much it 8 would cost.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, and that didn't pass.
10 Well, John, let me get back to this capital budget, because 11 you're the first one that has mentioned it today.

12 You say you don't think you need to have anything
13 in the Constitution on this point. There is nothing now, 14 is there, specifically?

15 MR. DONAHO: No, and they have actually worked 16 fairly well. In other words, there is a long-range capital
17 improvement program and there is an annual capital budget
18 which is financed basically from bonds.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, now, the capital budget, as 20 I understand it is more legislative than --

21 MR. DONAHO: That is where the politics come in,
