Sureties released.

Sureties to pay sum due state.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William H. Jordan, Richard H. Dixon, Sewell T. Milbourne and George W. Orem, sureties of John H. Seward upon his bond as collector of state taxes for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, in election districts numbers seven and thirteen of Dorchester county, be and they are hereby released from the payment of all interest with which the said John H. Seward and said sureties are or may be charged or chargeable, and which remains unpaid as collector aforesaid under and by virtue of said bond; provided that the said sureties shall promptly pay into the treasury of the state the principal sum due to the state by the said John H. Seward, collector as aforesaid; and provided, further, that they shall also pay all costs and charges already incurred, or that may be incurred by the state with reference to said unpaid taxes, including five per centum commission on the amount of the judgment obtained by the state on said bond, in the circuit court for Dorchester county, for the use of the state's attorney of said county; the comptroller and treasurer of the state having recommended that the said interest be remitted.

Effective.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 27, 1884.
