

dered by a justice as aforesaid, and the party found guilty shall, in that case, likewise give bail for his appearance to the circuit court; and it is further provided, that the grand jury for said county may indict any person for a violation of said charter, by-laws or ordinances as for other criminal offenses, and the indictment shall conclude "Against the charter, by-laws or ordinances, of the town of East New Market," as the case may be.

SEC. 25. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with the functions of the existing commissioners of said town, until the election and qualification of their successors under this act; but they shall possess the same powers which they now have, and the existing laws of said town shall continue in force and be effective until the election and qualification of a new board of commissioners as aforesaid.

How construed

SEC. 26. Be it enacted, That the commissioners of Dorchester county shall, on the first day of May next, and annually thereafter, pay to the commissioners of East New Market the sum of twenty dollars, for the purpose of assisting in keeping up the streets within the corporate limits.

Who to pay.

SEC. 27. Be it enacted, That the commissioners of Dorchester county are hereby authorized, in their discretion, to grant unto the commissioners of East New Market the right and permission to haul dirt and sand from the county road just beyond the East New Market depot, where the sand is heavy, for the purpose of filling up the sidewalks of said town.

Grant right and permission.

SEC. 28. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved April 8, 1884.
