

Indian Territory—Keep all intruders out of the territory; continue the self-government of the civilized tribes; let them regulate their own land tenure law; enact suitable laws to protect life and property on reservations; make them flexible in detail; administer them through department orders approved by the President; promptly and rigidly enforce them; individualize the punishment of crime; never hold the tribe liable for the crimes of its members; organize an efficient Indian police force on every reservation.

Indian Department—Create a separate Indian department under a civilian secretary; grant plenary emergency powers to the President; have all agencies frequently inspected by appointees of the President, well paid and unconnected with the Indian department; carefully regulate the powers and duties of Indian agents; give them permanent positions and liberal salaries; keep them free from political influence; let their subordinates be appointed by the department; all questions of general policy and treatment to be settled by the department; no individual experiments by theoretical agents to be permitted; abolish all privileged traderships; destroy all traffic in liquors; control the sale of arms and ammunition; in all else let there be free trade; let all military posts be maintained separate and apart from the Indian villages, and preserve absolute non-intercourse between the soldiers and the Indians.

Platform of principles.

No Removals—Remove no more tribes except where the soil and climate require it and the change is voluntary; civilize the Indians where they are.

Education—Educate the entire Indian reservation population; teach the children in boarding, manual labor schools on the reservations; make them farmers and graziers; give all the bands an abundance of cattle; teach them trades; instruct them in the laws of health; show them how to live; neutralize the influence of the medicine man; make work compulsory.

Platform of principles.

Lands in Severalty—On reservations, divide land in severalty as soon as Indians can farm them; make them inalienable and non-taxable for a time; sell the surplus lands for the benefit of the tribe; elsewhere grant government lands in severalty (on same terms) to all Indians who can cultivate them.

Citizenship—Give citizenship to all self-supporting Indians who ask for it.
