

Assessor shall return to the said Commissioners a fair copy of his assessment in a well-bound book within one month after his appointment, and shall receive for his work as Assessor such compensation as said Commissioners shall allow; and said Commissioners shall have power to alter and amend the said assessment whenever they think that justice requires it; and the Commissioners shall also appoint a Tax Collector, freeholder of said town, whose duty it shall be to collect the taxes upon said assessments and pay the same over to the Treasurer of said town; the Tax Collector, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall, in addition to taking the usual oath of office, enter into bond in a sum to be fixed by the Commissioners with two sureties, who shall be tax-payers of said town, conditioned to discharge his duties as Tax Collector faithfully, and pay over all moneys which may come into his hands by virtue of his said office; said bond to be approved by the Commissioners.

Appoint tax Collector.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That the President of the said Commissioners shall, in virtue of his office, have and exercise within the limits of said town, all the jurisdiction and power of a Justice of the Peace, except as to the recovery of small debts; he may call on any officer of the town, intrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public moneys for a statement of his accounts, as often as he shall see proper; he shall see that the ordinances are faithfully executed, and report to the Town Commissioners at their stated meetings the general state of the town, and may call special meetings of the Commissioners whenever he may see proper.

Jurisdiction of President.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have power to establish the limits and width of the streets of said town, and to improve the same, and to remove obstructions therefrom, and may open new streets, lanes and alleys.

Establish
limits. &c.