

PROPRIETARY ASSEMBLY OF 1638/39

Cecilius Calvert, 2nd Lord Baltimore, proprietor
Leonard Calvert, governor

February 25–March 19, 1638/39

SPECIAL WRITS

Thomas Cornwallseys, of the Council	Giles Brent, of the Council	Fulke Brent	John Boteler ¹
	John Lewger, of the Council	Thomas Greene

ELECTED MEMBERS

MATTAPANIENT HUNDRED	John Price	ST. GEORGE'S HUNDRED	KENT ISLE
Henry Bishop	ST. MARY'S HUNDRED	David Wickliff	Nicholas Brown
ST. MICHAEL'S HUNDRED	Thomas Gerard	Randall Revell	Christopher Thomas
James Cauther	Francis Gray

NONELECTED FREEMEN²

Cuthbert Fenwick Robert Clarke

¹ There is no evidence that John Boteler attended.

² Both men claimed a voice in the Assembly, because they did not assent to the election of burgesses from St. M Hundred.

PROPRIETARY ASSEMBLY OF 1640–1641

Cecilius Calvert, 2nd Lord Baltimore, proprietor
Leonard Calvert, governor

FIRST SESSION: October 12–24, 1640

SECOND SESSION: August 2–12, 1641

SPECIAL WRITS

Giles Brent, of the Council ¹	Fulke Brent ¹	Cuthbert Fenwick ⁴
Thomas Greene ²	Thomas Gerard, lord of St. Clement's Manor ¹	John Lewger, of the Council ¹

ELECTED MEMBERS

MATTAPANIENT HUNDRED	Thomas Morris	ST. GEORGE'S HUNDRED ⁷	KENT ISLE ⁸
Richard Lusthead ⁶	ST. MARY'S HUNDRED	Francis Gray	Giles Brent
Cuthbert Fenwick (E-2)	John Lewger	George Pye	Thomas Adams
ST. MICHAEL'S HUNDRED	Thomas Greene	ST. CLEMENT'S HUNDRED	Thomas Allen
Thomas Baldrige		Robert Vaughan ⁶	John Abbott

¹ Elected a burgess from Kent Isle, as well as being summoned on a special writ.

² Elected a burgess from St. Mary's Hundred, as well as being summoned on a special writ.

³ Attended only the second session.

⁴ Served at the first session on a special writ as attorney for Councilor and Manor Lord Thomas Cornwallseys, who out of the country; at the second session he was elected a delegate from Mattapanient Hundred.

⁵ Elected a burgess from St. Mary's Hundred, as well as being summoned as a councilor on a special writ.

⁶ Attended only the first session.

⁷ St. George's Hundred sent only George Pye to the second session in an effort to reduce expenses.

⁸ Kent Isle sent only Giles Brent and Thomas Adams to the second session in an effort to reduce expenses.