

County as a gift from his father in 1780, and inherited 712 adjoining acres from his father in 1786; mortgaged 253 acres in 1795, 400 acres in 1797, and 250 acres in 1798, all in Kent County. Sold 150 acres in 1798 and 59 acres between 1801 and 1802, all in Kent County. Obtained a release of mortgage on 250 acres and sold 104 acres in 1802. Obtained a release of mortgage on 253 acres and sold 253 acres in 1807. Held no land in Kent County by 1815. WEALTH AT DEATH. DIED: on September 20, 1830, at William H. Tilghman's house near Tuckahoe Bridge, Talbot County; buried at "Cloverfields," Queen Anne's County. PERSONAL PROPERTY: Inventory included only wearing apparel and one pair of steel-mounted spectacles. LAND: none. ADDITIONAL COMMENTS: Lloyd's marriage settlement in 1780 created a trust for Elizabeth so that if she survived him she would receive the real and personal estate James had received from his father instead of the usual widow's third. However, Elizabeth probably died before 1800 and the trust became moot. In the late 1790s Lloyd secured debts of over £1,500.0.0 specie in bonds and at least $4,350.00 in promissory notes by mortgaging his land. These mortgages were later released.
