EXECUTIVE COUNCIL ⁵

November 11, 1777–November 9, 1778

Thomas Sim Lee	Joseph Sim (Dcl)	Edward Lloyd	John Rogers (Dcl)
Josiah Polk (Dcl)	James Brice (E)	William Hemsley (E, Dcl)
	Daniel Carroll (E)	James Hindman (E)

² Recorded proceedings for the Senate begin on March 13, 1778, and for the House on March 17.

³ The governor convened the General Assembly on June 1, 1778. Recorded proceedings begin for the Senate on June 4 and for the House on June 8.

⁴ On November 4, 1777, Forman was determined ineligible to hold a seat in the House because of holding the office of Kent County clerk.

⁵ Mackall was discharged on November 4, 1777, because he was not a resident of Calvert County at the time of his election.

⁶ On June 11, 1778, an objection to the recent election of Samuel Hanson, Jr., from Daniel Jenifer, who was second on the poll, was read. Hanson was discharged on June 17, because he had been a field officer at the time of his election.

⁷ The election of Holland to replace Peter Chaille was declared void on April 6, 1778, because the sheriff of Worcester County, prior to holding the election, had resigned his commission. Holland was reelected to the third session, but did not serve.

⁸ The Loan Office Committee ceased to function as a standing committee following the first session.

⁹ On November 25, 1777, the Council journal notes that Polk, Sim, and Rogers declined to qualify, and that the General Assembly had chosen Brice, Hemsley, and Carroll in their places. Hemsley declined on December 2 and Hindman was elected on December 23 in his place.
