EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

December 1, 1786-November 22, 1787

James Brice Jeremiah Townly Chase James Hindman
John Kilty John Davidson

¹ Smith was elected president on January 8, 1787, to replace Plater, who had a leave of absence. Plater was reelected president for the second session, but was granted another leave of absence on May 20, 1787, and Carroll was chosen to replace him.

² Forrest was declared ineligible at the time of election "for the want of residence." He was discharged on January 15.

¹ It is presumed that the full name of this delegate was Francis Jenkins Henry.
