

1 somebody objects?

2 THE CHAIRMAN: He will say so or not show up.
3 In order to compel his attendance against his objection,
4 you have to have the requisite vote.

5 Mr. Case?

6 MR. CASE: Does the vote we have just taken,
7 it is always good to know what you have voted on, does 8 the vote we have just taken imply that the Constitution
9 will be so written to withdraw from the Legislative 10 Council the subpoena power that it has?

11 JUDGE ADKINS: Certainly should apply to the 12 Legislative Council.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: I would take it that the 14 Legislature or its Committees would include the Legisla-
15 tive Council.

16 MR. CASE: Then if I may, Mr. Chairman, I move 17 that the vote be reconsidered because it seemed to me that 18 what Mr. Hoff's motion went to was not that, but merely 19 to the Legislature as it sat in Annapolis and was in 20 session but to preclude the Legislature from having the 21 fact finding powers that the Committees must have during
