

1 better to defer this, because I am not sure that all the 2 alternatives are presented. There is a third alternative,
3 which is to retain the provision in the existing Consti-
4 tution prohibiting the extension of credit and to make 5 the Legislature actually borrow the money and show it on 6 the State balance sheet, that lessens to some extent the 7 temptation to get into this.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: I didn't mean to suggest that 9 the only question here is the twenty-five years or none.
10 The question is whether the whole sentence shall be 11 approved also. Are you ready to vote on that question
12 as well as on the point?

13 MR. SYKES: I don't think there is any point
14 on that.

15 JUDGE ADKINS: I would prefer to carry it over 16 to think about it over the lunch hour.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there any objection to record-
18 ing Dr. Jenkins' and Mr. Mercer Smith's voting in favor 19 of the provision which appears on Sheet B and against the 20 provision which appears on Sheet G? I take it, Mr. Smith
21 and Dr. Jenkins, that you would vote against a provision
