

1 of Section 12, in the beginning of the third line where 2 it says, he holds, be inserted a period and strike out the 3 rest of the paragraph. Now my reason for the motion --

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Just a second, Mr. Miller. Do
5 you mean to strike out the provision that he should not 6 receive any remuneration for his judicial service
7 except as provided herein, or do you mean only to strike out 8 the language with respect to --

9 MR. MILLER: Strike out the language between 10 the comma after political campaign.

11 Briefly, my reasons are twofold: One is, I
12 think it almost amounts to a depreciation of our thought
13 of the type of judges we might have. I know of no judge
14 in my experience that has even remotely approached it
15 in recent years. In the old days, it may have been differ-
16 ent, but in addition to that, we can't spell out when a
17 judge should disqualify himself. We can't spell out a 18 whole lot of things. We want a Constitution and the 19 last thing according to this if we put this in, there is 20 nothing in any of this to prevent the judge from setting up 21 a drug store or running a barber shop. It just seems to
