

1 together.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Did I understand, Mr. Clagett,
3 that you were suggesting earlier that all of the powers
4 conferred in Section 12.01 were to be subject to general
5 law?

6 MR. CLAGETT: Correct.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Bothe?

8 MRS. BOTHE: On the subject of general law, this 9 is, of course, laws existing at the time a compact or 10 cooperative effort is contemplated. What happens if the 11 General Assembly wants to change the law at the time the 12 grievance is made?

13 MR. CLAGETT: They had to deal with that problem
14 before. I can't see where there would be any difference.

15 MRS. BOTHE: I don't understand.

16 MR. CLAGETT: I don't see where there would be 17 any problem. They would have to consider, in making the 18 change, consider that problem in determining the advisability
19 of making the change, which is nothing more than the exer-
20 cise of government function.

21 MRS. BOTHE: You mean they might change the
