

1 intelligently.

2 JUDGE ADKINS: In defense of that rather oblique
3 criticism of my motion, I thought this had been referred 4 back to the Committee for such language and that's the 5 reason I don't have it before me.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Bear with me for just a moment,
7 please.

8 A transcript is here and this discussion goes
9 over numerous pages. I'll try to state it as simply as I
10 can. There was a motion by Mrs. Bothe that the provision
11 be rewritten so as to require -- as I stated, the motion
12 when put to a vote is this: The question arises on the 13 motion that the Section be so drafted as to impose limita-
14 tion on either the granted or inherent power of the Legis-
15 lature to require production of witnesses and records by 16 requiring a two-thirds vote of the appropriate House
17 authorized to compel the attendance of a witness against 18 his will before the Legislature or any Legislative 19 Committee or the production of books and records. That 20 motion lost six to 13.

21 There was then a motion to make the same
