

of Ratification of outrages committed in Baltimore city, and in their opinion that the Legislature should adjourn forthwith sine die.

All of which were severally read, and laid on the table.

Mr. Nuttle presented the petition of R. C. Carter, J. B. Fountain, and other citizens of Caroline county, asking for an adjournment of the Legislature sine die.

Which was read, and laid on the table.

Mr. Grahame presented the memorial of John Sullivan & Sons, and forty other merchants of Baltimore, for the repeal of the law appointing Commissioners to sell the State Tobacco Warehouses, in the city of Baltimore.

Which was read, and referred to a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Grahame, Duvall and Franklin.

Mr. Smith presented the following:

Memorial of A. H. Brosby, John H. Bowers, and other citizens of Carroll county, praying an immediate adjournment of the Legislature sine die.

Memorial of Francis N. Mills, John T. Diffinbaugh, and nineteen other citizens of Carroll county, praying an immediate adjournment of the Legislature sine die.

Memorial of J. G. Capito, Joshua Yingling, and fifty other citizens of Carroll county, praying an immediate adjournment of the Legislature sine die.

Memorial of Reuben Cassell, Rufus W. Crouse, and other citizens of Carroll county, praying an immediate adjournment of the Legislature sine die.

Memorial of H. N. Brinkman, J. W. Bosingfurnrie, and three hundred other citizens of Carroll county, praying an immediate adjournment of the Legislature sine die.

All of which were severally read, and laid on the table.

Mr. Goldsborough, of Talbot, presented the petition of Samuel Hambleton, Alfred P. Jump, and sundry other citizens of Easton, Talbot county, praying the donation of books to the Library Association of Easton, in said county.

Which was read, and referred to the Committee on the Library.

Mr. Kimmel presented the memorial of G. W. Crum, E. Saniker, H. H. Etchison, A. Dure, J. M. Little, D. J. Herring, and one hundred and fifty-five other citizens of Frederick county,