

Mr. Sangston moved their reference to a select committee, consisting of three members of this House with power to investigate the subject matter of said memorial and the manufacturing department of the Maryland Penitentiary, to send for persons and papers and take testimony under oath in all matters pertaining to the same; to sit during the recess of the Legislature and report on the reassembling of the same;

Mr. Ford moved to refer the same to the committee on Ways and Means;

Which was lost;

The question then recurring upon the original proposition to refer the petitions to a select committee, the yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follow:
