323. Annapolis, (Maryland) Oct. 20.| The brig Peggy Stewart, Captain Jackson, from | London, having on board seventeen packages, con-| taining 2320 lb. of that detestable weed tea, arrived | here on Friday last. . . . [Signed] By Order,| John Ducket, [sic] Clk. Com.| [Annapolis: Printed by Anne Catharine Green and Son. 1774.]

Broadside. 16 x 4½ inches.

Contains an account of the burning of the "Peggy Stewart" on Oct. 19, 1774, by her part owner, Mr. Anthony Stewart, acting under mob compulsion. Reprinted from Maryland Gazette for Oct. 20, 1774. This incident has been discussed by Mr. Richard D. Fisher in a series of letters to the Baltimore News beginning with the issue of April 8, 1905, and extending to Nov. 2, 1907. See scrap book of clippings, "The Arson of the Peggy Stewart," in Maryland Historical Society. Mr. Fisher regarded the incident as by no means creditable to the zealous Annapolitans.
