

COUNTY LOCAL LAWS

Effective Date October 30, 1989.

Bill No. 103-89

AN ACT concerning

Title 2. "Administration"

For the purpose of repealing sections for the provisions of street lights and for firefighting equipment, the creation of a director of public works, the raising of a militia and for the provision of arms and ammunition, the appropriation and borrowing of moneys for public defense in time of war, the establishment of salaries for liquor inspectors, the establishment of compensation for deputy medical examiners, the county executive's authority to sign deeds or leases, the authority to the secretary to the county executive to attest signatures, the powers and duties of the county attorney generally, the provision of oaths and employees of the State's Attorney, the penalty for violating the secrecy requirements of the State's Attorney, the presentment of cases to grand jury, the prosecution of misdemeanors, the issuance of summons by the State's Attorney, the administration of oaths to witnesses before the State's Attorney, the investigation of cases by the State's Attorney, the trial procedure applicable to information filed by the State's Attorney and the jurisdiction of the circuit court to hear misdemeanors; repealing and reenacting sections allowing for the exchange of real and leasehold property and for the disposal of real property, the appropriation of moneys to public and nonprofit organizations who provide a benefit to the citizens of the county, the approval of contracts for the purchase or lease of materials, equipment or supplies, the approval of contracts with independent firms of certified public accountants, the fees for copies of books and records, the fees for copies of police reports, the fees for fingerprints to be taken, the organization of the department of public works, the powers, duties and organization of the department of public works, the duties of the director of the department of public works, the amendment to the definitions under the Employee's Relations Act, the amendment to the negotiation rights and responsibilities of employee organizations, the requirement of bonds for special officers, the provision for changing the county executive's salary, the authority of the county attorney to represent the county, the approval of condemnation matters by the council, the compensation of council members, the rules of practice and procedure of the Board of Appeals, the delegation to the Board of Appeals of the interim power to change zoning classification of property, the suspension of reclassification petitions filed during the preparation of the zoning map, the organization of the Economic Development Commission, the meetings of the Economic Development Commission, the power and duties of the Economic Development Commission, the terms of the members of the coalition for handicapped persons, the membership of the commission for women, the organization of the commission for women, the officers of the commission for women, the establishment of the self insurance fund, the provision of funds to obtain excess insurance coverage, change of name from CETA to JTPA, the administration of funds under JTPA of 1984, the defense and reimbursement in civil actions, the method of reimbursement, the purpose and authority to enforce storm water management provisions, the amendment of definitions, the amendment of the applicability of the