

CHAP. 53. for that purpose, and fitted up under the direction of the executive.

Rules to be established

2. And be it further enacted, That the president of the senate, and speaker of the house of delegates, for the time being, be and they are hereby empowered to establish such regulations, in relation to the library, so collected, as to them shall seem proper, and from time to time to alter or amend the same, provided that no regulation shall be repugnant to the provisions of this act.

Executive to appoint librarian

3. And be it further enacted, That the executive shall appoint some qualified person as librarian, whose duty it shall be to collect all books, maps and documents aforesaid, and deposit the same in the manner provided by the first section of this act; and the librarian so appointed, previous to entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond to the state of Maryland, in such sum, and with such security, as the executive may deem sufficient, for the safe keeping of such books, maps, documents, and furniture of the room, in which the same may be deposited and confided to his care, and also for the faithful discharge of his trust, according to such regulations as may from time to time be established under the authority of this act, which said bond shall be deposited in the executive chamber.

No book to be taken out of library except by executive, &c.

4. And be it further enacted, That no book, map or document, shall be allowed to be taken out of said library, except by the executive, members of the general assembly, and judges of the court of appeals.

Salary of librarian

5. And be it further enacted, That the librarian shall annually receive for his services a salary not exceeding two hundred and twenty-five dollars.

Two hundred dollars annually appropriated for purchase of books, &c.

6. And be it further enacted, That the sum of two hundred dollars be appropriated annually, for the purchase of books and maps, for the augmentation of the aforesaid library, which shall be laid out under the direction of a joint committee of three members of the senate, and three from the house of delegates, to be appointed for that purpose.

CHAP. LIV.

Passed Feb 3, 1827

An Act for the benefit of Mary Davis, of Washington County.

Divorce granted

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Mary Davis, of Washington county, be, and she is hereby divorced from bed, board and mutual cohabitation, with her husband, John Davis.

John Davis not authorised to claim title to any property of said Mary

2. And be it enacted, That the said John Davis shall not, by virtue of his marriage with the said Mary Davis, be in any manner entitled to, and that the said John Davis shall not be authorised to have or claim any right, title or interest, in the estate, real, personal or mixed, of the said Mary Davis, whether acquired by the said Mary Davis prior to, or to be acquired by her after the passage of this act, nor shall the said Mary Davis be in any manner entitled to have or claim any right, title or interest, in the estate, real, personal or mixed, of the said John Davis, whether acquired by the said John Davis prior to, or to be acquired by him after the passage of this act.