Communion, and become a Member of the Protestant Church. Annapolis: Printed by Frederick Green, 1784.]

Collation unknown.

It is almost certain that Wharton's letter was printed by Green in 1784 although no copy has been found to prove definitely the point. Bound in with the John Carter Brown copy of the Letter is a supplement with the heading:—To the Roman Catholics | Of The | State Of Maryland, | Especially those of | Saint Mary's County. The type in which this supplement was set differs from that of the Philadelphia edition and is quite similar to that used by the Green Press. The Philadelphia edition of the Letter ends with page 40 while the supplement runs from page 51 to 56, proving that it was not published as a part of the Philadelphia edition.

Not in Evans or Sabin.
