

Carroll, John, archbishop.

The Catholic Inhabitants of Baltimore, After much deliberation, have finally resolved to unite their efforts for the purpose of erecting a Church, not only sufficient for their present accommodation and the continual increase of their Congregation, corresponding with the growth of the town; but likewise worthy of being the Cathedral of this extensive Diocese. As this is a concern which belongs not only to the Inhabitants of Baltimore, but to the Professors of the Catholic Faith throughout the United States; and as it must be pleasing to all the friends of our religion in every other country, to hear of its taking deep root in this part of America, the Bishop of Baltimore, uniting himself with that part of his flock with which he resides, fervently and earnestly solicits the assistance of thos pious and generous Christians, whom God has blessed with affluence, towards compleating this arduous undertaking. [Baltimore? 1806?]

broadside 34 x 20.5 cm. Without imprint.

The cornerstone of the Cathedral was laid in July, 1806; tentatively dated 1806 on basis of internal evidence.

Balt. Cath. Archives.

[427]

Catholic Church. Liturgy and ritual. Directory. Baltimore (Archdiocese)

Ordo Divini Officii recitandi, Missaeque celebrandae. Juxta Breviarium et Missale Romanum, ad Usum Ecclesiae totiusque Dioecoesis Baltimorensis, pro Anno Domini M,DCCC,VII. [filet] Tabula temporaria. [6 lines in 2 columns] [short thick-thin rule] Festa mobilia. [8 lines] [short thick-thin rule] Quatuor Tempora. [4 lines] [thick-thin rule] Baltimore: Typis Johannis W. Butler. [1806]

[32] p. 16 cm. [A]<sup>4</sup> B-D<sup>4</sup>.

Parsons 289.

MBAt.

[428]

Catrup, William M.

To the Public. Friends and Fellow-Citizens, You have seen Price Martindale's reply to mine in the Star—he has denied it all in a lump—that he is able to do. In as much as the old villain's publication goes to prove nothing. [130 lines in 2 columns, separated by row of