

Streets, Lanes and Alleys. [thick-thin rule] By Cornelius William Stafford. [thin-thick rule] Baltimore: Printed for the Editor, by John W. Butler, Corner of Gay & Water Streets. [1802]

131, [1], 71 p. 17.5 cm. A-L<sup>6</sup> a-f<sup>6</sup>.

Sabin 2998 note.

DLC; MdBE; MdBP (2 copies); MdHi.

[83]

Baltimore Library Company.

A Catalogue of the Books, &c. belonging to the Library Company of Baltimore; to which are prefixed, the Act for the Incorporation of the Company, their Constitution, their By-laws, and an alphabetical List of the Members. [thick-thin rule] [7 lines, quotation] [thin-thick rule] Baltimore: Printed by Prentiss & Cole, No. 14, South Charles-Street. 1802.

xxiii, 98, [1] p. 19.5 cm. a-c<sup>4</sup> A-M<sup>4</sup> N<sup>2</sup>.

MWA; MdHi (3 copies).

[84]

Baltimore. Ordinances.

Ordinances of the Corporation of the City of Baltimore, passed at their February Session, 1802. [double rule] Baltimore:—Printed by Warner & Hanna, printers to the Corporation. [short rule] 1802.

68, v, [13] p. 20 cm. [A]<sup>4</sup> B-L<sup>4</sup>.

Advertised in the Baltimore Democratic Republican, May 31, 1802, as "This day are offered for Sale."

MdHi. Garrett.

[85]

Baltimore. Printers.

Baltimore, March 22, 1802. Sir, We have the honor to inform you, that at a meeting of the Printers, Booksellers, Bookbinders and Papermakers of this city, ... [at end] Your obedient servants, John Hayes, William Pechin, Andrew Hanna. Committee. Approved by the meeting, John Hagerty, Chairman [Baltimore, 1802]

[4] p. 25 cm. Without imprint.

Pages [3-4] are blank, except for handwritten mailing address on p. [4]. Underscored words in manuscript.

Circular letter relating to "the expediency of petitioning Congress to lay a further duty on (imported) Books, either bound or in sheets ... The importance of the subject ... must appear evident to every Printer in the United States."

NHi.

[86]