

sending his two sons to the school, Arnold was providing a refuge for them for the perilous future when he would be on the other side of the lines. A letter of October 6, 1780, written by Col. Walter Stewart, gives an excellent insight into Arnold's character and indicates the bitter feeling against him after his treachery was discovered.

Other private accessions of especial interest are a photostat copy of the Minute Book dating from 1742 to 1926, deposited by the South River Club; the map of Anne Arundel County, published by S. J. Martenet in 1860, given by Mrs. Cora M. Dulaney; and the rolls of Maryland Militia detachments ordered into service during the War of 1812, which were microfilmed from the originals by permission of Mrs. W. C. Turner, the owner.

There follows a detailed list of all accessions from public sources:

ANNAPOLIS CITY TREASURER

Received April 17, 1951.

Day Books, 1802-1812, 1819-1820, 1824-1826, 2 volumes (9975-9976).

Journal C, 1828-1838, 1 volume (9977).

Election Returns for Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Councilmen, 1825, 1 volume (9978).

Assessments, 1860, 2 volumes (9979-9980).

CAROLINE COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT

Received April 19 and May 22, 1951.

Land Record Liber A, 1774-1786, 1 volume (10099).

Land Commissions, 1774-1793, 1 volume (10063).

Clerks Accounts (mainly a record of marriage licenses issued), 1774-1792, 1 volume (10063).

Minute Books, 1775-1784, 1788, 1791-1805, 1818-1821, 1825-1858, 1907-1912, 1922-1925, 21 volumes (10064-10084).

Dockets, 1777, 1781, 2 volumes (10085-10086).

Supersedeas and Subpoena Docket, 1797, 1799, 1 volume (10087).

Test Books, 1799-1859, 4 volumes (10088-10091).

Minutes of the Commissioners of the Tax, 1811, 1 volume (10092).

Alphabets to Criminal Records, Liber A and Liber B, n.d., 1 volume (10093).