

HALL OF RECORDS COMMISSION

The Hall of Records Commission is an ex-officio body created by Chapter 18, Acts of 1935 to collect and preserve the non-current records of the State. Since the passage of this Act, the Commission has been assigned other duties: it is responsible for editing the State's Year Book, the Maryland Manual; it is a depository for all State reports and other publications; it microfilms for deposit in the Land Office all the deed and mortgage records of the counties; it is required to make copies by photostatic process of any county record on request and at the cost of the counties. The work of the Commission is carried on at the Hall of Records building in Annapolis (Flack's Code 1951, Article 41, Sections 121, 148-157).

At the end of fiscal year 1952 the members of the Commission and their offices were as follows:
