

Many of the titles fill gaps in our holdings of Marylandiana.

During the year, we added many genealogical publications. Included among these are the genealogies of the Stein, Emison, Knouf, Medairy, Rice, Wilmot, Thompson, Barrackman, and Townsend families. Mrs. Helen W. Brown has added to her already large collection of invaluable source records by her gift of Marriages and Deaths in Washington County, Maryland, 1830-1837, which she collected from The Republican Banner. Katherine H. Palmer donated a copy of her Old Trinity Church, Dorchester Parish, Church Creek, Maryland, Birth Register.

We have continued to supplement our holdings of county and municipal codes as is required by statute.

As during previous years, our purchases have been limited. Some of the titles added in this manner were Kenneth Carroll's Joseph Nichols and the Nicholites, Harry Kirwin's The Inevitable Success: Herbert R. O'Connor, and The Biographical Directory of the American Congress, 1774-1961. We also purchased copies of Constance M. Green's Washington: Village and Capital, 1800-1878, and James H. Whyte's The Uncivil War: Washington during Reconstruction. Our library now has approximately 6,400 titles.
