

CHAP. 29. shall, on conviction before a justice of the peace, be sentenced by the said justice forthwith, to receive on his or her bare back such number of stripes as he shall order, not less than ten, nor more than thirty-nine.

Whipping prohibited near camp.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That no stripes shall be inflicted on any person, within one mile of any camp meeting.

CHAPTER 30.

Passed January 31, 1828. An act to authorise Joshua W. Massey, of Queen Anne's county, to convey the Land therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, James Roseberry, late of Queen Anne's county, by his last will and testament, bequeathed the whole of his real estate to Mary Roseberry, the daughter of his brother Samuel Roseberry, and to Robert Stevens, son of Robert and Charlotte Stevens, with authority to his executors to sell the same, and to divide the money equally between them, and whereas Joshua W. Massey, of the said county, afterwards intermarried with the aforesaid Mary Roseberry, and with the approbation and consent of Robert Stevens, the surviving executor of the said James Roseberry, sold all her part of the said real estate, being a parcel of land called "Brotherhood," adjoining Church Hill, in Queen Anne's county, and received the money for the same, Therefore,

Acts made valid.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any deed or conveyance, already made, or hereafter to be made, and executed by the said Joshua W. Massey, shall be as valid, to pass all the right, title and interest in, and to the land aforesaid, to the purchaser or purchasers, or to their heirs, as if the same had been made and executed by the executors of the said James Roseberry, in pursuance of his last will and testament.

CHAPTER 31.

Passed January 31 1828. An act to authorise the building of a Bridge across the south branch of the Patapsco river, from a point on the land of Richard Cromwell, to a point on the opposite shore, on the land of William Krebs.

Authority granted - construction prescribed.

SECTION. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Richard Cromwell and William Krebs, their heirs, assigns, or other legal representatives be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to build a bridge at their own proper cost, and expence, over the south branch of the Patapsco river, from a point on the land of Richard Cromwell, to a point on the opposite shore, on the land of William Krebs, the said bridge to be built of good and substantial materials, with a railing on each side thereof, and a draw in said bridge,