

CHAPTER 47.

CHAP. 47.

An additional supplement to an act, entitled. An act respecting the equity jurisdiction of the county courts of this state.

Passed February 8,
1828.

Day for equity business.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of some one of the judges of the fifth judicial district, composed of Frederick, Washington and Allegany counties, to attend at the court house in the town of Cumberland, Allegany county, at some day between the several sessions of their court, who shall have power to make all necessary orders touching any subject matter in the said courts, upon the equity side, brought or depending therein, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of said county to attend the said judge on the said days, who shall make due entry of all such matters and things as shall or may be ordered as aforesaid by the said judge; and the said county court of said district are hereby instructed, at the first court next after the passage of this act, to appoint the day on which the said judge shall attend as aforesaid, which said day shall be, as nearly as may be, equi-distant between the terms of the respective county courts, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 48.

An act to make valid a certain deed of Manumission.

Passed February 11
1828.

Deed made valid.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a deed of manumission, executed by Lloyd Ball, in favor of certain negroes therein mentioned, bearing date the twenty fourth day of October, seventeen hundred and ninety one, and recorded on the twenty ninth day of March, seventeen hundred and ninety three, in Liber E. folio two hundred and ninety seven, one of the land records of Montgomery county court, be, and the same is hereby declared to be good and valid, and of equal force and effect as if the same had been recorded within the time limited by law, and the clerk of Montgomery county court is hereby authorised and required, upon application therefor, to issue to the said negroes or their descendants, or any of them, certificates of freedom, in the manner and upon the terms required by law.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall affect any suit or prosecution pending in any court of this state.

Provisio.