

195 H. The Mayor and Town Council shall pass all such ordinances as may be necessary to impose a license tax upon each and every saloon and hotel or other place, where spirituous and fermented liquors are sold with a view to profit, which license tax shall be collected at the date of the granting of the said license. The proceeds of said tax shall be paid into the treasury of said town as any other tax. The said license tax shall be in each and every year, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars; said license to be applied for and granted by the Mayor and Town Council of the Town of Oakland, to be dated from the first Monday in May in each year; and for any portion of a year, to be regulated by ordinance, in the discretion of the Mayor and Town Council; and further, the said saloons, hotels or other places, where spirituous and fermented liquors are sold with a view to profit, shall be closed at ten-thirty o'clock P. M. and opened at five o'clock A. M. each day; and the said Mayor and Town Council shall provide by ordinances now in force and operation in said town, shall remain and be in full force and effect until regularly repealed; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors by a regular pharmacist or druggist having a license for such business under the laws of this State, upon written bona fide prescriptions of a regular practicing physician of such district or county, whose name shall be signed thereto.

To license saloons.

195 I. All ordinances now in force and operation in said town shall remain and be in full force and effect until regularly repealed.

Ordinances in force.

195 J. The Town Council may, by ordinance, provide for the codification of all ordinances which have been or may be passed by it, and for the printing of such codification thereof; and the printed ordinances so issued by the authority of the Town Council may be read in evidence from the printed codification.

Codification of ordinances.

195 K. That all laws relating to the corporation of Oakland conflicting or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal.

195 L. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective