

of the said county, to prosecute any person of whom he may have knowledge, who has violated any of the provisions of this act, and to prosecute any person upon the written complaint of any citizen, accompanied by the names of two reputable witnesses; and citizens of said county may prosecute for any offence against the provisions of this act.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act relating to intoxicating liquors, as aforesaid, in any election district, town or city of said county, in which a majority of the votes cast shall be against license, or in the county, if a majority of the votes cast therein shall be against license as set forth herein, shall be liable to the penalties and forfeitures set forth in section 7 of this act. Violations of this act.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That if any druggist or pharmacist shall violate any of the preceding sections, he shall be liable to the penalty set forth in section seven of this act, and in addition thereto his license as a druggist or pharmacist shall, upon conviction, at once be revoked by the court so convicting him, and shall not be renewed for at least one year from the date of said sentence and revocation, or for a longer time if the court shall so order, and have it entered of record as a part of the sentence. Violations by druggists.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That if any of the officers named in section ten above, shall be found guilty of any violation of his duty as such officer, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars upon conviction thereof. Neglect of duty by officers.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That one-half of all fines shall be paid to the informer, and the balance shall be paid to the Board of School Commissioners of said county for the use of the public schools. Application of fines.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the court to give in charge to every Grand Jury, the provisions of this law, by calling their special attention thereto, and it shall be their duty to summon before them the sheriff and deputy sheriff of said county, and the constables in Salisbury, Parsons and Nutters election districts of said county, and the police officers of the city of Salisbury and other officers of said county, in their discretion, and closely to examine them as to any violation of this law. Duty of court.