

CHAP. 269.

prescribed, by this section for such offences. A failure to produce on demand to an attendance officer any certificate required by this section, shall be prima facie evidence that the child, who is or should have been mentioned in the said certificate, is thus unlawfully employed.

Certificates
to be turnished.

133. It shall be the duty of every parent, guardian or other person having control of a child under sixteen years of age, and of every principal or head teacher of said school where such child last attended, to furnish every employer of such child the certificates required by the preceding section. Such certificates, if in substantial conformity with the requirements of that section, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts required to be certified to as therein provided.

Penalty
for violation.

134. Any parent or guardian or other person having control of a child, or principal or head teacher who shall make any wilfully false statement respecting any of the facts required to be certified to as provided in sections 132 and 133 of this sub-title, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not more than fifty dollars, or to be imprisoned not more than thirty days, or suffer both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

Who may be employed.

135. No person shall employ any minor over twelve and less than sixteen years of age, and no parent, guardian or other person having control of a child, shall permit to be employed or retained in employment any such minor under his control, if the said minor cannot read at sight and write legibly simple sentences in the English language while a public evening school is maintained in the city or election district or precinct in which such minor resides, unless such a minor is a regular attendant at an evening or other school; provided, that upon presentation by such minor of a certificate signed by a regular practicing physician, and satisfactory to such officer or officers as the School Commissioners for the county or city may designate, showing that the physical condition of such minor would render such attendance, in addition to daily labor, prejudicial to health, said officer or officers so designated may issue a permit authorizing the employment of such minor for such period and upon such conditions as said officer or officers so designated as aforesaid may determine. Any person who employs or retains in employment a minor in violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be fined for each offense not more than one hundred dollars, which fines shall be paid to the School Commissioners for use in supporting evening schools in such city or county. Any parent, guardian or other person having control of a child, who permits to be employed any minor under
