

by the policy, it shall be expressed in said policy that the insurance is made upon the said mansion house or other building insured subject to the lien created by law.

CHAP. 564.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That section 6 of chapter 173 of the Acts of 1849 of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled "An Additional Supplement to an Act entitled An Act to incorporate the Mutual Fire Insurance Company," passed at the December Session eighteen hundred and forty-two, chapter 214, be and the same is hereby repealed, and that sections 2 and 3 of said chapter and Act be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Repeal
and re-enact.

Section 2. That all applications for insurance in said company shall be made in writing and signed by the party or parties making the same, and when such application shall be made and the premiums therefor paid to the company, the same shall be deemed and taken as full an assent to the constitution and by-laws of said company as if made according to the requirements of the second section of the original charter of said company; and that any insurance heretofore made of such charter shall be good and valid between the company and said parties.

Applications
for insurance
to be made
in writing.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any person possessed of a life estate in real property, or any person holding such property in trust, to insure the same in said company.

Life estates
may be insured.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That section 10 of the aforesaid Act of 1842, chapter 214, as the same was repealed and re-enacted with amendments by chapter 227 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January Session of 1880, be and the same is hereby further repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Repeal and re-enact.

Section 10. And be it enacted, That whenever it shall be found necessary by the board of directors to make an assessment to pay a loss or losses for which the said company may be liable, it shall be the duty of such board to ascertain the amount so to be raised and the proportion thereof or sum to be paid or contributed by each member of said company and to notify each member of the same so to be paid by him or her, and if at the end of sixty days from the date of such notice any member of said corporation shall have failed to pay his or her contribution as aforesaid, it shall be unlawful for the said board of directors, upon filing in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for the county where the property insured to such defaulting member is situated an account or statement of the amount by such defaulting mem-

Members to be notified of assessment
to be levied,
etc.