

CHAP. 326

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 3, 1906.

---

CHAPTER 327.

Dead.

---

CHAPTER 328.

AN ACT to refund to George T. Smith the sum of money paid by him to the Comptroller of the Treasury of the State, and converted into the Treasury of the State, for license to dredge for oysters with the sloop "Bettie," which license, by mistake of the Comptroller, was forwarded to the wrong address, and said sloop was not used at all under the same.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, George T. Smith, of Oriole, Somerset county, Maryland, on the 9th day of November, 1904, applied to the Comptroller of the Treasury for license for the sloop "Bettie," and three hands, to dredge for oysters for the season ending March 15, 1905, paying therefor to said Comptroller the sum of twenty-one dollars and sixty cents ($21.60); and

WHEREAS, In pursuance of said payment the Comptroller issued license No. 460, and by mistake the same was forwarded to Westover, Maryland, instead of to the proper address of the said George T. Smith, and in consequence was not used by him for said sloop and hands during the said season; therefore Warrant to be drawn.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the treasury of the State in favor of George T. Smith, of Somerset county, aforesaid, for the sum of twenty-one dollars and sixty cents ($21.60), heretofore recited, paid by him for said unused license, as aforesaid, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 9, 1906.