

and the same is hereby amended by addition of three new sections thereto, to be known as Section 185 c, 185 d and 185 E, and to read as follows: CHAP. 354
New sections added.

Section 185 c. It shall be unlawful for any person to use gill or gilling nets in the waters of Fishing bay or Transquakin river, in Dorchester county, north of a line drawn from Blackwater point to Irish creek, up the Transquakin river to Destroys creek, or to set or fish weirs or other nets in the waters aforesaid with the farther end of said weirs or nets more than three hundred yards from shore north of said line drawn as aforesaid from Blackwater point to Irish creek to a line drawn from Transquakin point to Little Snake island shells, near the mouth of Transquakin river, and on the opposite side of the said Transquakin river to Transquakin point, and it shall also be unlawful to set fish nets or weirs north of said line from Transquakin point to Little Snake island shells in the waters aforesaid of the Transquakin river, as far as the northwest reach of said river, having the farther end of said nets or weirs more than two hundred yards from shore, and in no place in the waters of the Transquakin river up to the northwest reach thereof shall any net or weir be set to extend more than one-third of the breadth of the water at the place where the said net or weir may be so set or fished; and it shall also be unlawful to set or fish any weirs or nets in the waters of the said Transquakin river beginning with the northwest reach of said river as aforesaid up to the head of the river, extending more than one-half of the breadth of the water at the place where the said weir or net may be set or fished. And it shall also be unlawful to set or fish weirs closer than two hundred yards of each other in the waters of the Transquakin river and Chicacomico river, and it shall also be unlawful to haul seines in the waters of the Transquakin and Chicacomico rivers, and it shall also be unlawful in the waters of Fishing bay, south of a line drawn from Blackwater point to Irish creek, to set any weir more than four hundred yards from shore, or to set any line of gill nets or weirs closer to each other than four hundred yards, or to set any row of gill nets more than four hundred yards in length. Unlawful to use gill or gill nets, etc.

Section 185 d. That any person who may violate the provisions of the preceding sections shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not less than $25.00 and not more than $50.00 for each and every offense. Fine imposed.