

Duties.

Treasurer, who shall hold his office for four years from the first Monday in May next succeeding the day of his election, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified; he shall be ineligible for election to said office as his own successor, and shall be subject to removal from office by the County Commissioners of said county for any wilful neglect of duty or misbehavior in office at any time upon conviction in a court of law. The person so elected County Treasurer shall be collector of all State taxes and all county taxes for whatsoever purpose, which shall be levied or assessed during his term of office; and it shall be his duty to receive and collect all State and county taxes levied or assessed or put in his hands for collection, with full power to enforce the payment of the same by sale or otherwise, and to convey title to any real or personal property duly sold by him for the payment of State or county taxes according to law, and receive all money which shall be due and payable to said county from any sources whatever.

County treasurer.

The County Commissioners for Anne Arundel County, immediately after the passage of this act, shall appoint a County Treasurer, who shall hold his office until his successor is duly elected, as hereinbefore provided, and qualified, and shall be ineligible for election as his own successor to said office, and who shall be subject to removal from office at any time by the County Commissioners of said county for any wilful neglect of duty or misbehavior in office, upon conviction in a court of law. The person so appointed County Treasurer shall be the collector of all State taxes and all county taxes for whatever purpose, which shall be levied or assessed during his term of office; and it shall be his duty to receive and collect all State and county taxes levied or assessed, as aforesaid, or put in his hands for collection, with full power to enforce the payment of the same by sale or otherwise, and to convey title to any real or personal property sold by him for the payment of State or county taxes according to law, and shall receive all moneys which shall be due and payable to said county from any sources whatsoever.

Duties.

Bonds.

223. The person so elected or appointed County Treasurer shall give bond to the State of Maryland for the collection of State taxes placed in his hands for collection in double the amount of the taxes to be collected by him, with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the Governor, with the condition "that if the above bounden ——— shall well and faithfully execute his office, and shall account for to the Comptroller and pay to the Treasurer of the State the several sums