

Unlawful to keep with intent to sell. SEC. 180. No person, house, company, association or body corporate, shall deposit, keep or have, in his or its possession, any spirituous or fermented liquors, or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, or cider, tonic beer, lager beer, schnapps or gin, or any article used or sold as a beverage in the composition or compounding of which whisky, brandy, high wines or alcohol, or any spirituous or fermented liquors, shall be an ingredient, with intent to barter or sell or give away the same, in violation of the provisions of the preceding section, or with intent that the same shall be bartered or sold, or given away, in violation thereof, within the limits of said county.

Exceptions. SEC. 181. Nothing in the two preceding sections shall be construed to prevent the sale of pure apple cider; (not to be drunk on the premises of the seller,) in quantities not less than one gallon at one time, by the manufacturers of apple cider, or by persons who have grown the apples from which the cider sold by them has been made; but such sales of apple cider shall only be lawful between the first day of August in each year and the first day of January of the succeeding year, and no sale of cider shall be lawful to minors or intoxicated persons, or on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday; nor shall any sale of cider be lawful, either for themselves, or as agents for others, by such manufacturers of cider or growers of apples, if they shall be the proprietors, keepers or owners of a hotel, inn, bar-room, restaurant, saloon, eating house, store, or pool, bagatelle or billiard room, or by their agents, waiters or clerks; nor shall manufacturers of cider or growers of apples, or their agents, sell cider, directly or indirectly, in any hotel, inn, bar-room, restaurant, saloon, eating house, or pool, bagatelle or billiard room.

Penalty. SEC. 182. If any person, house, company, association or body corporate shall violate any of the provisions of the three preceding sections, within the limits of Cecil county, he or it shall, on each and every conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than six hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, and be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than six months nor more than twelve months, or, in the discretion of the court, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than six hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution; and failing to pay such fine and costs forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a
