

rant it, unless the same be protected by fire walls; to preserve order, and protect persons and property from violence, danger and destruction; to erect hospitals or pest houses, and provide for the proper management of the same; to restrain or prohibit fast driving through the streets; the firing of guns, pistols, cannons or fireworks; contract for water supply for fire purposes, and provide for the payment of the same; to erect lamps and light the streets, or contract for the lighting of the same, and provide for the payment thereof; to locate and restrain, or to prohibit and suppress the keeping of hogs or shoats, slaughter houses, fertilizer factories, or houses for the storage of fertilizer, within the town limits; to purchase and keep in proper condition hose, hose carriages, engines, ladders, trucks, and other apparatus for extinguishing fire and protecting property from fire, and to erect and keep in repair proper buildings therefor; to require bonds, with penalties from officers of the town, for the faithful performance of duty; to protect the property of any water company, or gas or electric light company, or the owner of such, which may supply water, gas or electric light to the town or citizens thereof, and generally for the promotion and securement of the health and good government of the town, and to give effect to the powers vested in said commissioners.

Protect
property.

SEC. 43. And be it enacted, That the corporate limits of Chestertown, "Kent County," Maryland, be and the same are hereby extended so as to embrace all the territory within the following metes and bounds: Beginning on Chester river, at the eastern bounds of the town, and the division line between the lands leased out by Washington college and the lands of Mrs. Mary R. Perkins, and running thence, in a northerly direction with said division line and the easterly bounds of said college lands, to the intersection of Washington avenue with College avenue; thence westerly, in a straight line, to the point where the public road, from Chestertown to Fairlee, crosses the mill-stream, the headwaters of Radcliffe creek; thence in a southerly direction to the point of intersection of the lands of Wm.

'Metes and bounds of Chestertown.